od crowd was in attendance. Individual roast, the poor work of the former American Leaguer at the middle to L. Chance MoFarland bunted and died. No runs.

Foxey Ned came to the conclusion that Sammy will not do at second and after a consultation with Capt. Doyle decided to shift him back to his old place at third and give "Dutch" Jordan a try out at the central station. The utility man showed up well in practice and will probably hold down the job until Tim Flood recovers.

Second Inning.

Freeman sent one to Williams too hot to handle, but Jimmy picked it up in time to get his man at first. Parent filed to Courtney. La Chance out, Williams to Ganzel. No runs.

Williams's drive was taken care of by Collins. Ganzel filed to left. Conroy doubled in the same direction and came home when Parent juggled Courtney's red-hot drive. O'Connor fouled out.

Pitcher Pounds, late of the Cleveland Babes, w. join the Brooklyn in St. Louis. This is the slab man who was slated for Clarke Griffith's Highlanders, This is the slab man who was but could not come to terms. Pounds Cleveland players, and Hanlon believes will round out the Superba pitching department in good shape.
